

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE FOR A FUTURE HOME.

On North Street in Broad Oaks and within 140 feet of Harrison street, I have a vacant lot 40x100 feet with alley on side and rear. This makes the lot practically a corner lot. Water and sewerage on North street, and Harrison street will be paved from North street to Goff Plaza. This lot is cheap at $1,200, but if sold at once the purchaser can have the lot for $1,300, $250 cash, balance $100 per year with interest. This will be picked up by some one at once for it surely is a bargain. You be the one to do the "picking".

Beautiful Wedding.
A very beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce T. Southern, of Terra Alta, on Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Emma Ruth, was united in marriage to Mr. William Barker Elliott.

At the appointed hour a solo was sung by Miss Genevieve Elliott, sister of the bridegroom, then to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Lucile Elliott, sister of the bridegroom, the bridegroom and his best man, Fleming M. Southern, entered the drawing room followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Naoma Cuppet, and the flower girl, little Miss Helen Southern, sister of the bride, and then came the bride accompanied by her father, who met the bridegroom at the altar and the beautiful ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Lightner, pastor of the Baptist church.

The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white silk crepe, meteor with an over dress of silk chiffon and carried a huge bouquet of bride's pink asters. The flower girl was dressed in white voile and carried a basket of pink and white asters.

The house was artistically decorated with palms, smilax and fall flowers. After the ceremony a small reception was held and refreshments were served in the dining room, the table having for its centerpiece a mound of white smilax, pink and white asters. Mrs. Clinton Jack, of Buckhannon, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. Frank G. Southern, of Clarksburg.

The bride is a popular and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce T. Southern, while the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Elliott and is a prominent young business man, both being residents of Terra sailed for Jamaica. Senator Roscoe Conkling was driven from the mansion at the point of a shotgun in the hands of Sprague. Divorce soon followed.

Later "Cananohet" was sold over the head of the governor, Frank D. Moulton paid $62,250 for the $1,000,000 estate. When he appeared to take possession he found "Cananohet" in a state of siege. Governor Sprague, armed with his historic shotgun and surrounded by his supporters, stood ready to repulse invasion. The siege lasted for many weeks, until the matter was taken into the courts for settlement.

When Moulton died in 1886, his widow returned the mansion to the governor in consideration. It is said of a mortgage for $62,250. Sprague immediately moved in, bringing his second wife, who was Dora Inez (Weed) Calvert, of West Virginia. The old place was dear to the aged statesman. Here he had entertained such Americans as President Garfield, Chief Justice Chase, Horace Greely, General Benjamin Butler and Samuel J. Tilden.

The last blow fell when "Cananohet" was destroyed by fire in 1909. The governor and Mrs. Sprague barely escaped with their lives. "I was in Washington the other day," said Governor Sprague in speaking of his eventful life. "The scenes there did not make me wish to be among them. Here in the quiet, after the heat of the day, I have found bliss. I bear no grudge against any man, and one of the comforts of my retirement is that I find nothing to condemn mankind for."

WARRANT DISMISSED.

William Washington, the last of the fifteen colored men who were arrested last Saturday night in an alleged gambling house in Traders alley, was dismissed by Magistrate Jackson V. Carter, Saturday morning. The magistrate had been deliberating on the evidence in the case for several days. All of the men arrested were released as the prosecuting witnesses failed to furnish sufficient evidence to justify the magistrate in holding them.

OIL AND GAS

For several months the West Virginia fields have not been furnishing anything better than light producers. The Big Injun sand development on Beech Lick Run, Greenbrier district, Doddridge county, seems to have departed from the rule and has supplied a very good producer. It is the South Penn Oil Company's second test on the R. W. Golden farm and produced 176 barrels the first 24 hours after it was drilled into the pay. The well is in a section that has been under development for some time, but is a much better producer than any previously completed in that district. The amount of work under way and starting in that district exceeds that of any other in the old producing sections. The South Penn Company is drilling No. 4 and has the rig completed for No. 5 on the same farm. In New Milton district the South Penn Oil Company and the Hope Natural Gas Company are drilling tests on the B. Dennison and Henry Gum farms.

On Cabin Creek, Central district, Doddridge county, the Hope Natural Gas Company has completed and shot a test on the H. E. Williams farm and has a show for a five-barrel pump in the Big Injun sand. The location is about midway between the Carter Oil Company's test on the Douglas farm and the Imperial Oil and Gas Company's test on the Hudkins farm, completed recently.

On Polk Creek, Freemans Creek district, Lewis county, Hazel Wilson & Co. have drilled No. 3 on the McDonald heirs' farm through the salt sand and have a show for a six-barrel pump. This location is about one-half mile northeast of the test on the Charles A. Taylor farm. On Spring Creek, Smithfield district, Roane county, the Lee Ott Oil Company has the rig completed for a second test on the Louis J. Harris farm, located 1,000 feet south of No. 1.

The National Oil and Gas Company's gusher on the W. J. Robinson farm in Indiana township, Allegheny county, is holding up at 23 barrels an hour. The well has not been drilled any deeper, but the tools kept running to agitate the well and it flows at intervals of 12 minutes.

There is no move as yet to start new work on the strength of the Robinson farm gusher. To the northeast the Rushville Oil Company has taken a lease on the Seifert farm and a part of the Stevenson farms. In addition to a bonus, the Rushville Company agrees to start a well on each farm within ten days. Mel Root, formerly an active operator and contractor in the Cleveland gas field and in the town lot development at Evans City, is at the head of the Rushville Drilling Company.

Southeastern Ohio.
Light wells continue in the shallow sand districts in southeastern Ohio fields. In the Reas Run district, Independence township, Washington county, Thornhill & Heeler have drilled their No. 17 on the Eckert heirs' farm through the Big Injun sand and have a show for a very light pump. In the same district, in Grandview township, Edward Hall has started to drill a test on the H. Houghton farm. In the same township, Stewart, Douglass & Co. are drilling a second test on their No. 4 lease on the A. T. Dye farm, and J. H. Kiggins & Co. have started to drill a second test on the W. L. Riggs farm.

SHOWS COMING

Howe's London Organization to Be Here Friday, September 24.

Howe's Great London Shows Consolidated will appear in Clarksburg Friday, September 24. While the trained wild beasts are a great feature, the regular line of circus acts is fully up to a high standard. The wonderful Zanfretta Family are a surprise and have no equals in the circus world. The riding Lowlands are among the big acts; the Bertie Trope, Flying Juniors, the Bronco Troupe of acrobats have no peers. The Kentucky manege and high school horses are seen only with this show. The clowns are funny, the gymnasts clever; the elephants numerous and the menagerie is large and the Glasgow Prize Team a great feature.

A free street parade will be given which will leave the grounds at 10 o'clock on the day of the performance.

FINED FOR BEING DRUNK.

Lloyd Duff's Desperate
Motor Dash.

A charge of violating the prohibition law against F. B. Thompson and one of resisting officers against Lloyd Duff are to be investigated by the next grand jury, Magistrate W. E. Starcher having transmitted the cases after hearings late Friday afternoon. Charges of violating the prohibition law against William Freeland and Charles Morgan were dismissed. All the cases arose from a recent automobile trip from Salem to Point Comfort, which resulted in the arrest of the men and the seizure of a large quantity of liquor in the car.

Thompson was released under two bonds of $500 each as required by the prohibition law and Duff was released under a bond of $200.

Insurance That Insures

A TESTIMONIAL

Clarksburg, West Virginia, September 7, 1915

Mr. Carroll W. Reed, District Manager,
Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company,
Clarksburg, West Virginia.

Dear Sir:—I desire to thank you and the Company you represent for the prompt settlement covering policy for insurance applied for on July 22, 1915, by my husband, the late _____, whose death occurred on August 3, two days before the policy was received. I was not aware that the insurance was effective, until informed by you that the Mutual Benefit's policies took effect from the date of the medical examination in favorable cases when the premiums were prepaid.

You well know that I was opposed to Mr. _____ in applying for the insurance at the time you called upon him, but now realize that his action was timely and that my view of life insurance was entirely wrong; as evidence of my conversion I am today giving you my application for a policy with premium prepaid, so that my children may have the protection of the same institution which has served me so well.

Very sincerely,

(Signed) _____
